

It's a great day to be Irish!

We'll celebrate St. Patrick's Day with corned beef and the trimmings from 6-8 p.m. on Tuesday, March 17. This is a paid event, $10 per person. Everyone will get one raffle ticket with admission; you may purchase more tickets: 7 for $5, 15 for $10, 25 for $20. Coffee and water provided. You MUST RSVP by March 15 to Ann Carter, 954-471-5758 or anncarter@rocketmail.com so we have enough corned beef on hand.

Dinner will be followed by a discussion of the ARC form, when is it required, when is it not. This will be the first topic in a series of "town hall" meetings.

Looking ahead

2-4 p.m. Sunday, March 29, trivia Time: Prepare to have your knowledge and memory challenged. Social Committee will provide light refreshments. The last half-hour will be a "town hall" about what parts of your unit are your responsibility and what parts are the association's responsibility.

6-8 p.m. Tuesday, April 14, potluck: Bring your favorite dish to share. 50/50 raffle. RSVP to anncarter@rocketmail.com, 954-471-5758. After dinner, we'll discuss where your fees go and what happens if you get behind.
